Proper words cannot be found with which to thank Father McLain for all he has done for Aquinas.

Few games, dances, or other school activities can be recalled at which he was not present. His interest in every phase of Aquinas school life has meant a great deal to us.

But even more significant has been his interest in every individual student. We have found in him not merely a teacher, but rather, a friend and adviser. Throughout the past three years, many have turned to him for help in both scholastic and personal problems. He has never once failed to do his utmost.

It is then, in an endeavor to express our gratitude and appreciation, that we dedicate the Aquinas to Father James McLain.

Sister Mary Martin, C.S.J.
Principal

Dear Boys and Girls,

This book is a record of many of the events in this year of your life, the picture story of you in your world of today. Each of you will read into these pages a different story, your own unique history, which is truly known only to you and to God; and very probably the story of this year will be characteristic of your future life. Let us hope, therefore, that this year you gained a greater knowledge and love of your vocation, your country, your fellowmen, and your God. By these standards you can measure the genuine "success" of your year.

In the name of all the faculty I congratulate you on the achievements recorded in this yearbook. We are proud of you and of your loyal spirit. Our fond hopes and prayers go with you for even greater "success" as tomorrow's horizon broadens.

God bless you!

Sister Mary Martin

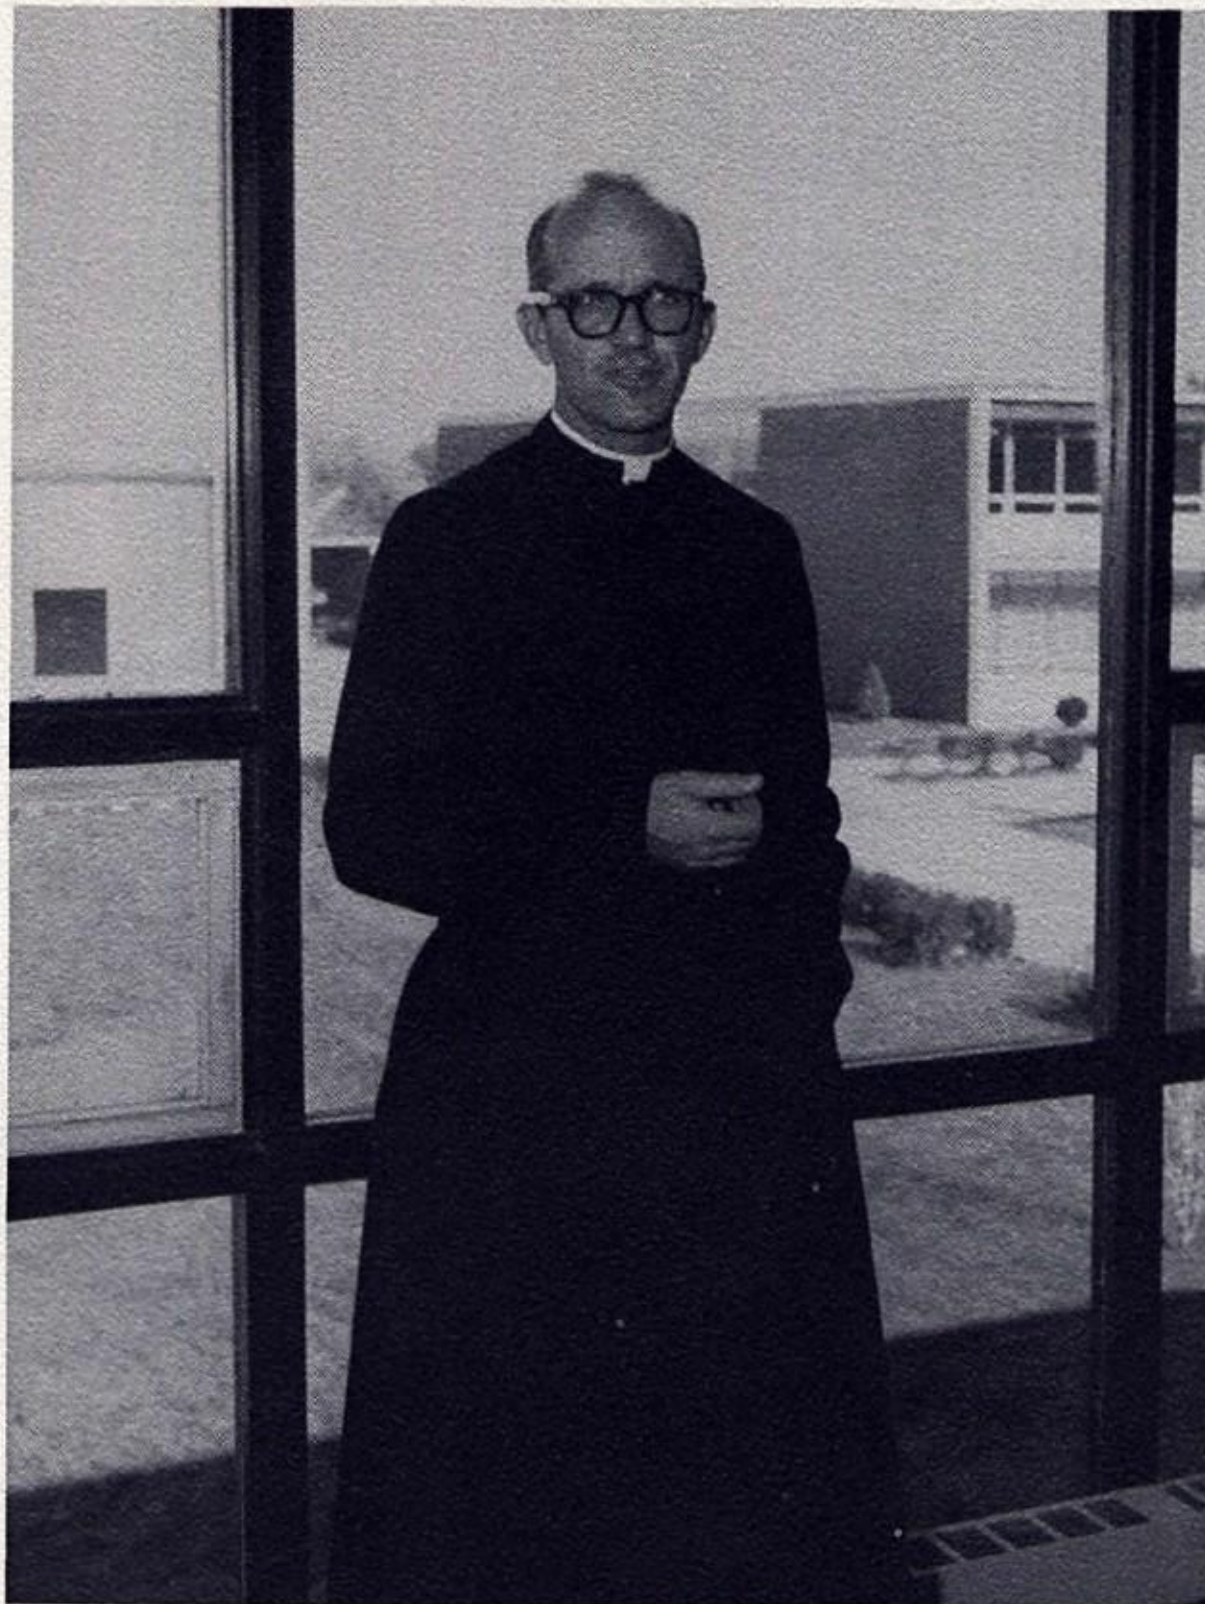

Dear Students,

Some of the objectives of Catholic secondary education are intellectual, moral, physical, and social development. To this list I would like to add another goal for students of St. Thomas Aquinas High School. I would like to believe that every student has learned sensitivity for others. This would include an awareness of other's needs and problems and a burning desire to correct injustices, wherever individual men are suffering from other men's cruelty and thoughtlessness.

We hope our students never say "let someone else do it," or "it's none of my business." If we have sensitivity to the needs of others, the welfare of others becomes our business.

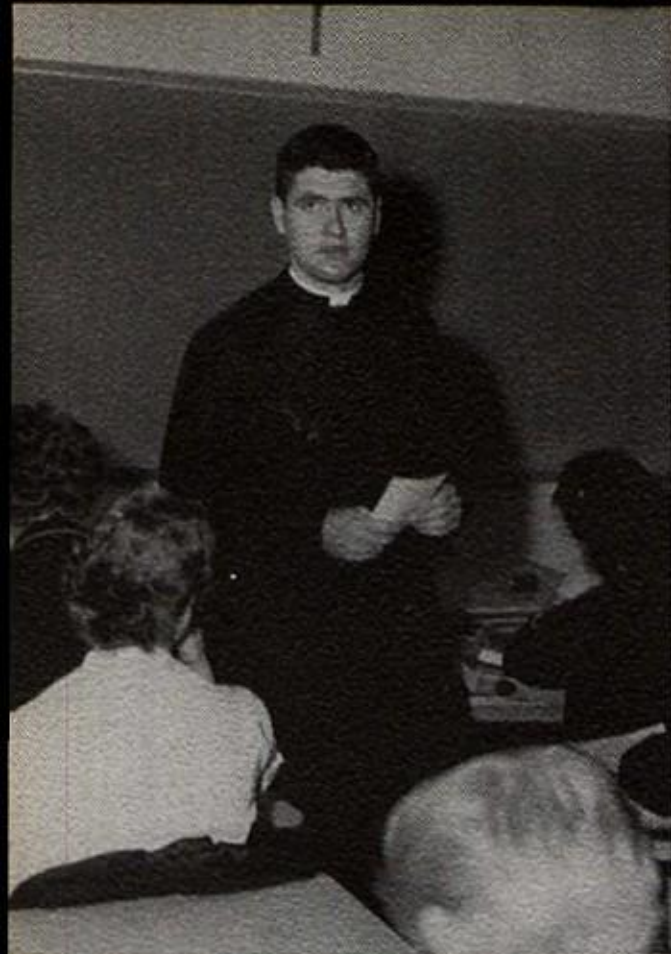

The habit of not caring is the easiest in the world to acquire. We hope our students cherish the best things that are, and that freedom, justice, courage, and compassion are high in their system of values.

Man walks to GOD
by his human acts

The image is an abstract geometric composition. A central, light-gray, vertically-oriented oval contains the text "Man walks to GOD by his human acts" in a black, calligraphic script. The word "GOD" is notably larger and more ornate than the other words. Surrounding this central oval are several rectangular shapes of varying sizes and shades of gray, connected by thin black lines. These lines form a network that frames the central text. The rectangles are positioned at the top, bottom, left, and right of the oval, creating a sense of architectural structure. The overall style is minimalist and modern, with a focus on geometric forms and a clear central message.

The image features a central, light-gray, vertically-oriented oval containing the text. This oval is surrounded by a network of black lines and solid-colored rectangles. A large, light-gray rectangle is positioned at the top right, and a smaller one is at the top center. A dark gray rectangle is at the top left. To the right of the central oval is a dark gray rectangle. Below the oval is a light gray rectangle, and at the bottom right is a dark gray rectangle. The entire composition is set against a plain, light-colored background.

Where are you going, Johnny?

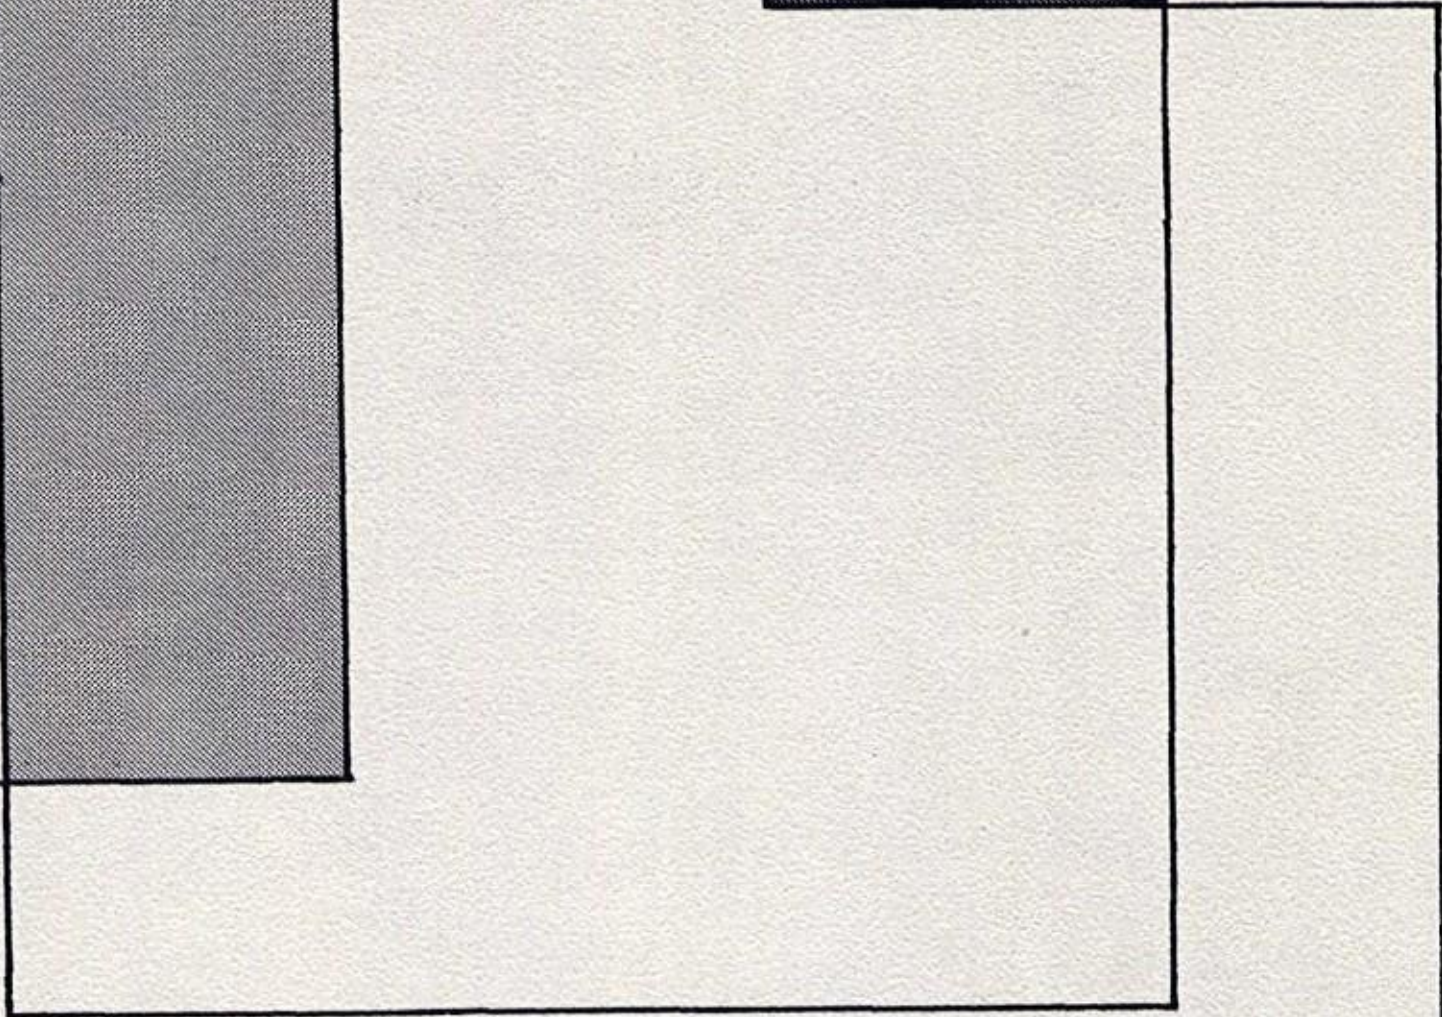

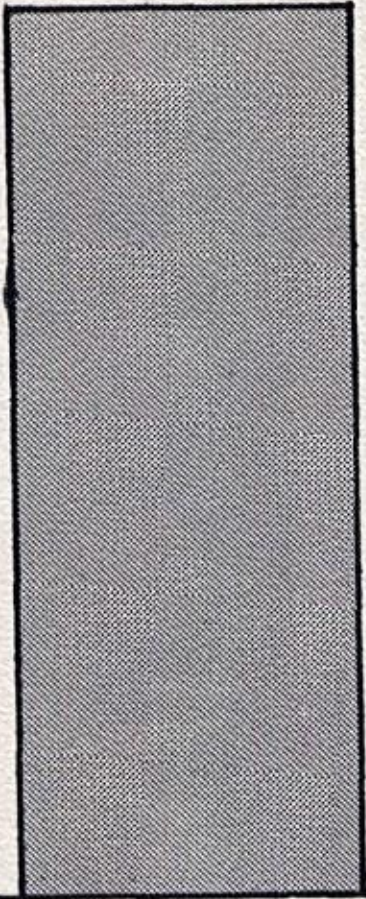

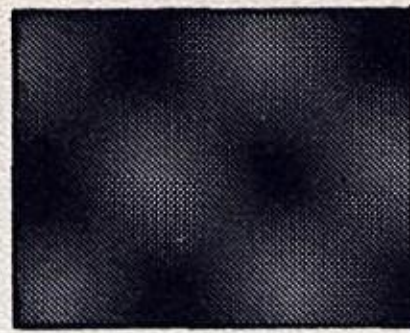

The background of the page is decorated with several rectangular blocks of varying shades of gray and black, connected by thin black lines. These elements are arranged in a non-representational, abstract pattern. A large, light-gray, vertically-oriented oval is positioned on the left side of the page, containing the text.
